New Officials Take Oath at Council Meet

Seven Election Winners in Bow to City Monday Night

In chambers that were jammed past capacity an hour before the meeting started, the City Council convened Monday night to tally results of last week's elections, count absentee ballots and swear in elected officials to serve the next four years.

First to appear was Police Chief John Glavinovich, making his last appearance in that capacity. A tremendous round of applause was accorded him.

During the lengthy procedure of checking results from the election precincts, it was frequently necessary for Glavinovich to silence the spectators, a task he capably handled under the conditions.

Counting of the absentee ballots brought no important change in the results announced last week, save that it increased by four the 22 vote lead of Leon R. Hess, school board candidate, over Dan C. Atwater.

ADMINISTRATORS OATH

The oath of office was administered simultaneously by City Clerk H. W. Brewer to Police Chief Lloyd Jester, Judge Louis J. Hardie, Joseph Yovino-Young, city attorney; Councilmen Benjamin Mowday and Frank Hays, Mrs. Josephine Foley and Leon Hess, school directors.

Next action taken was the unanimous election of Mayor O. C. Yenne to serve as head of the group for the next two years. This motion was made by Mowday, seconded by Hays.

Mowday also expressed appreciation of the 26-year service of Glavinovich, moved that he designated honorific police chief, the council approved the plan.

Appointment of Hays as vice-president of the council and as its representative on the School Board was also made. These posts have been occupied by Councilman George Batchelder for the past two years.

SAME COMMITTEES

The same representatives will be retained on the Park, Planning and Zoning Commission, the group announced. Mayor Yenne also reported that no change would be made on the fire, light, finance and street committees. Judge Hardie disclosed that he will retain Mrs. Myrtle McLean as his court clerk during his four-year term. A huge basket of flowers awaited him on the platform while a floral horseshoe was presented Yovino-Young.

Closing the lengthy session, council members adjourned to the Cornell school, to hear protests on the recent action of the School Board in demoting the two High School heads, Charles Moore and William Feeny.

J. Dockweiler to Be Heard Monday

Congressman John Dockweiler, an outstanding candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor of California, will be in the East Bay next Monday, April 25, it was announced today by the Dockweiler-for-Governor Alameda County Headquarters. "Congressman John", as Dockweiler is familiarly known, will address a public meeting at 8 o'clock in the Oakland Auditorium Theatre.

This will be the first opportunity Albany citizens have had to see Dockweiler since he announced his candidacy. He has been engrossed at Washington, D. C., with duties as Congressman, and is able to visit his native state at this juncture only by reason of official business which brings him West. Speeches which he will deliver at Las Angeles, Oakland, and Sacramento, will be on his return to Washington.

NEW ROTARY OFFICERS

Selection of new officers by the nominating committee will be a feature of the Monday noon meeting of the Albany Rotary Club, reports President Kenneth Glines. All members are urged to be present at the Memorial Building on time.

Community Sing To Be Postponed

Postponement of the Community Sing, scheduled tonight in Marin School auditorium, is announced by the Albany Recreation Department. A date for the event, planned for adults only, will be announced shortly it was said.

Reason for cancellation of the "sing" is the presentation tonight of "Sunny Skies", gay musical comedy being sponsored by Albany Post No. 202, American Legion. As so many people have expressed a desire to see this fine show, department officials stated, the other event was postponed.

"John" Feted Friday Night

In honor of his long record of faithful service, John Glavinovich was feted last Friday night at a dinner party held at DeBiasi's. Over 100 friends and officials were present to salute his 26 years as head of the police Department of Albany.

Substantial token of their regard for him was tendered by members of the department as they presented him with a gold star. The presentation was made by Sergeant Charles Hardie.

A similar award came from the many friends of Lloyd Jester, new police chief. Gifts were also presented Joseph Yovino-Young, new city attorney; Councilmen B. W. Mowday and Frank Hays, and Leon R. Hess, school director.

Visiting officials who praised the veteran enforcement officer in glowing terms included August Vollmer, former Berkeley police chief and renowned criminologist; Chief James Drew of Oakland, Lieut. John Holstrom of Berkeley; Chief R. Jones of Richmond, Officer Arthur Peralta of El Cerrito; State Highway Patrolman Kenneth Erb, and Sergeant H. Drake and Inspector J. Windell of Alameda.

Committee Is Host at Local Dinner, Meet

Bringing word of the aims of the Metropolitan Oakland Area program, members of its subcommittee were hosts Tuesday night in Albany to local city officials, directors of the Chamber of Commerce and others, at a dinner party held at DeBiasi's.

Capably handling the job of master of ceremonies was Mrs. Beatrice Raymond, head of the local chamber. An official greeting was extended by Mayor O. C. Yenne and Councilmen B. W. Mowday, Frank Hays, Vincent Hanahan and George Batchelder.

Main theme of the campaign, stressed William P. St. Sure, chairman of the committee, is to advertise the communities in Alameda County. This can be done much more efficiently and satisfactorily, he declared, by concerted action than it can by the individual cities. Praise for the work of Mrs. Raymond on the committee and for the assistance of the Board of Supervisors, was also expressed by him.

Other members of the committee present included Harvey Scott, secretary coordinator; I. Terrell, publicity director; Harold D. Webster, managing director of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce; Digby Smith of Hayward, R. U. St. John of Alameda, Carl Friden of San Leandro, Charles D. Carroll of Oakland and Hal A. Webster of Castro Valley.

Albany city officials, in addition, included Fire Chief Carl Ahlgren, Police Chief Lloyd Jester, Joseph Yovino-Young, city attorney; Jack O'Leary, assistant superintendent of streets and Mrs. Grace Higgins, city treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dodge of Minneapolis, Minn., Mrs. A. T. Sim of Wilmar and Mrs. J. A. Johnson of Los Angeles, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wilson, 1208 Evelyn Avenue. Mr. Dodge is a conductor on the Soo Line between Minneapolis and Enderline, N. Dak.

Legion Show To Be Given This Evening

Acclaimed a big success last night by a capacity crowd, "Sunny Skies," Albany Legion Post's sensational musical comedy, will be presented again tonight in the Veterans Memorial Building. The all-Albany cast was enthusiastically received, it is reported.

Scene of the offering is Kentucky, with Broadway writers there to enjoy a respite from noise and trouble. Eruption of a family feud however, shatters their rest but provides an amusing evening for spectators. A pair of young lovers kept apart by stern parents provides the romance, while a spinster about to give up all hope of marriage supplies comic relief to the plot.

Songs, dances and specialty numbers are interspersed throughout the play, presented by talented local performers.

Featured parts are taken by Jack Reynolds, Jean Crocker, Victor Brennan, Patricia Scott, Arlene Wright, Jack O'Leary, Jr., Beverly Jean Wuelzer, Bruce Borel, LeRoy Holland, George Fay, Bartie Rolph, Clarence Finn, Lloyd Tilton and Milton Engstrom.

Dixie rhythm and dance numbers will feature Viola Wilcox, Judith Bonner, Elaine Burrows, Vera Wilson, Shirley Smith, Lucille Storck, Shirley Burrows and Lorraine Higuera.

A singing and dancing chorus of 75 girls, from eight to 14, will present a kiddies revue. These children have been rehearsing daily for the past week, are said to possess unusual ability.

Appreciation was expressed by Miss Margaret Hoobing, director, and members of the cast for the fine cooperation of Miss Mabel McRae, rehearsal pianist.

The Druids foresee an easy win in this game, it is reported. Reason for the confident outlook is that they have secured the services of Cowboy "Buddy" Lenzini from Missouri, who formerly pitched for the St. Louis Cardinals.

Three Members of School Board Resign Posts After Special Meeting Wednesday

3-2 Vote of Board Returns Moore and Feeny to Offices in High School; Contract Cancelled With New Aide

The latest development in Albany's turbulent school situation was the resignation Wednesday night of three members of the Board of Education, following that group's 3-2 vote to rescind its previous action in demoting Principal Charles A. Moore and Vice Principal William Feeny of the High School.

Board members vacating their posts are Dr. Jack L. Stein, who has served as president for the past seven years; Mrs. Josephine Foley, secretary for four years and recently re-elected by a large majority; and Lawrence F. Williams, who has served for two years.

Their reasons for resigning are contained in letters printed on page five of this paper. The originals were sent to the County Superintendent of Schools, Edgar E. Muller.

Reversal of the board's action came at a special session held Tuesday night at its offices in the Marin School building. In a room jammed with students and citizens, Williams and Mrs. Foley voted against the move as Frank V. Hays, council representative; Leon R. Hess, new member, and Dr. Stein voted for Moore and Feeny's retention in their present jobs.

Two soloists, Mrs. Lucille Hayden and Mrs. Minnie Ellen Hastings, will also be heard in selections.

Members will also hear further details of the smorgasbord dinner, to be held next Thursday night. This event is for members of the Post and Auxiliary only since reservations are limited to 150 persons. Time of the dinner is 7 o'clock, also at the Memorial Building.

Five Persons Baptized At Easter Ceremony

Five persons were baptized at the Easter Services conducted at the Albany Baptist Church by Victor A. McKee last Sunday. They were Mrs. Clara Fessenden, Miss Alice Hillengas, Virginia Fessenden and Joyce Willis.

Florence Bowden, who celebrated her first birthday on Monday, April 4, was dedicated. She is the daughter of Ralph Bowden, organist of the church.

A few of the 800 Albany High School students who went on strike Monday are shown listening to a plea from Principal Charles A. Moore that they return to classrooms. Students refused to attend school because Moore and Vice Principal William Feeny had been demoted by action of the School Board to posts as instructors, effective next term. They returned Tuesday, however, on promise from a citizens' committee that action would be taken within 48 hours. Wednesday night the board voted 3-2 to rescind its previous motion.

Mr., Mrs. Bayliss Fete Fortieth Anniversary

Gifts which they "will treasure more than rubies" were received by Mr. and Mrs. George Bayliss on Saturday afternoon, April 9, when they celebrated their ruby anniversary by holding open house at their home, 848 Stannage Avenue.

From across the sea came congratulations from the two bridesmaids, who were attendants at the nuptials held in Birmingham, England. They also wired bouquets of daffodils, similar to those they carried down the aisle of the Coventry Road Baptist Church forty years ago.

The local couple have two sons, Edward and Prince Rupert, B. C., and Herbert Bayliss of Hayward. The latter's wife and Mrs. Anice Greenwalt assisted in receiving and serving the 30 guests, who dropped in to extend their best wishes.

Among those present were Rev. Dean Goodwin of Oakland and Mrs. Wallace Reid, Mrs. Ruby Swan, Mrs. A. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Neill, Miss Diane Gibson and Victor A. McKee of Albany.

Victor McKee Feted at Reception on Easter

At the conclusion of the Easter services held last Sunday evening, Victor A. McKee, pastor of the Albany Baptist Church, was the guest of honor at a reception and dinner held there.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with calla lilies forming an immense cross in the background and twined about the altar rail. Tall white tapers in white candleabra flanked by bouquets of forget-me-nots completed the picture.

The affair, arranged by Mrs. George Bayliss assisted by Mrs. Harold Frisvold, was a combination birthday party and kitchen shower as the pastor recently revealed that he is planning to be married.

The bride-elect is Miss Ethel Page of Everett, Wash. The nuptials will probably take place when Mr. McKee returns to his home town during his vacation in July. His father, Dr. H. Robinson McKee, is expected to officiate.

A clothes basket of gifts, including an autographed rolling pin, was presented to the pastor, to whom the affair came as a complete surprise. Over 70 persons were present to extend their felicitations.

Marin P.-T. A. Aides Named by Mrs. Stine

Wood, Founder's Day; Mrs. John T. Kane, school education and Mrs. R. E. Crane, roll call.

Chairmen of the recreation and safety committees will be announced at a later date.

Two Local Matrons Honor Berkeley Girl

Mrs. A. Pisani, 918 Pamona Avenue, and Mrs. C. Bittencourt of 1021 Solano Avenue were co-hostesses at a pre-nuptial shower given for Miss Willetta Charleton of Berkeley at the latter's residence, 1300 Ward Street, last Saturday evening.

The presentation of gifts was followed by an evening of cards. At midnight a buffet supper was served. Albany residents present were Mr. and Mrs. I. Steward, Mr. and Mrs. C. Gustafson, A. Pisani and C. Bittencourt.

Mr., Mrs. Chelemados Observe Anniversary

Their twenty-first wedding anniversary was celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. Chelemados of 918 Key Route Boulevard last Wednesday.

Miss Mangels Elopes With W. Poindexter

Coming as a complete surprise to their many friends here was the elopement of Miss Violet Mangels of Albany and William Poindexter of San Francisco, who plighted their troth on Good Friday in Reno, Nev.

Although they had planned on a quiet ceremony, news of their arrival leaked out and an elaborate wedding supper and reception was arranged at The Tavern by Samuel R. Tippet, a prominent Reno attorney and a boyhood friend of the groom.

The bride wore an Eleanor blue satin wedding gown, matching accessories and a graduate corsage. Miss Edna Day was maid of honor and Samuel R. Tippet, best man.

The newlyweds returned to Albany last Sunday evening and are making their home at 841 Key Route Boulevard.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mrs. Angela Bacigalupi, one of the pioneers of this city.

Sullivan Was A Real Champ

BY ED SCHOENFELD
That name will be marked down in boxing history as one of the greatest fighters who ever trod inside of a 24-foot ring.

He was popular with the American people. He was popular with the people of the world for he was recognized everywhere as a real champion.

It was Sullivan who revolutionized the boxing game by introducing the four round game with large gloves. Sullivan, a native of Boston, Mass., was born October 15, 1858, and had a fair education.

At the age of 18 he was considered the strongest lad in his neighborhood. He could beat any boy or man of his weight and never backed from those of larger size or greater weight.

He put himself to the most severe tests and boxed at all tournaments in Boston for the enjoyment.

John L. was an all-around athlete, being able to run 100 yards under 11 seconds, a first-class baseball player and a good swimmer.

It was then that Jim Keenan and Tom Farley, noted sportsmen, offered to back him in a bout against Professor John Donaldson, a very clever boxer. When Donaldson saw Sullivan he declined the bout. He did meet Sullivan later with gloves and was easily beaten.

Sullivan's bare knuckle fights with Paddy Ryan and Jake Kilrain under London prize ring rules proved his greatness as a bare knuckle boxer, and later his fight with the gloves were remarkable.

Sullivan's fighting tours, when he took on all comers, netted him several fortunes. But he went through these like a tornado through a wheat field.

John L. might have been a tough character when under the influence of liquor, but away from that he was one of the finest fellows a guy could know.

He was a well read man and preferred anytime to discuss Shakespeare, Gladstone or Parnell to talking fight.

And greater than all he was always on the level.

That is why he was such a hero with the ring fans the world over.

It was often contended by some sporting men that Sullivan had a fear

(Believing that all the citizens of Albany should know their reasons for resigning from the School Board, Dr. Jack L. Stein, president; Mrs. Josephine Foley, secretary, and Lawrence F. Williams have requested the "Times" to print their letters of resignation which are now on the way to Edgar E. Muller, county superintendent of schools.)

Albany, Calif., April 20, 1938.
Albany Board of Education, Albany, Calif.

Gentlemen:
My sole purpose in voting for reconsideration of the reinstatement of the Principal and Vice Principal of Albany High School was to quiet the existing hysteria raised among the students by factions in the Community and to promote the early resumption of studies.

Feeling that the above action is contrary to my convictions and better judgment for the rebuilding of the High School system, I herewith tender my resignation as a member of the Albany Board of Education to take effect immediately.

Yours very truly,
JACK L. STEIN, M.D.

Albany, Calif., April 20, 1938.
To the Board of Education, Albany City Schools, Albany, Calif.

Gentlemen:
My action as taken with due consideration in voting at the last meeting that the recommendations of the Superintendent of Schools be approved is still to my best knowledge in the interests of the School System and should not be changed under pressure of organized minorities gathered together for various reasons under the leadership and direction of political factions opposed to the policies of that majority group which of Peter Jackson, colored heavyweight, but to those who knew John L. the claim was absurd.

At one time Sullivan was on the verge of signing to meet the colored heavy, but when the question of color came up he refused signing point blank.

However, Sullivan did offer to meet Jackson in a private match with only five or ten men in the room with them. This story was vouched for by Frank Hall, who arranged Sullivan's last tour.

No one doubted that Peter Jackson was a great boxer and fighter, but he could do nothing with Jim Corbett in 61 rounds at San Francisco in happens to be directing the policies of the school system.

The Superintendent and principals of the school system must make recommendations to the Board, advising them of the qualifications of certificated and other employees. Any other procedure followed in which teachers are employed by the school board members is contrary to the best administrative procedure. When this is done political considerations are allowed to direct the school system.

It is my opinion that real interest in the school system is shown by educating all of your children in that system. To my knowledge certain leaders of this minority faction have not done so but have educated their children in private schools.

Undue interest has been taken in the school system by political opposing groups who on one pretext or another have condemned the action of this Board taken at the meeting of April 12 and have centered their attack of malicious lies and propaganda on certain members of the Board, with the purpose in view of gaining control of the actions of your school board.

Control by organized minorities whose leaders have incited the students of Albany High School to strike, and who have not investigated the qualifications of the principal being demoted but have acted purely from a sentimental viewpoint of friendship and not for the best interests of education and discipline is, in my estimation, a condition which should be investigated by an impartial group of citizens of this community.

The committee of twenty-five who is responsible for this agitation in arousing the feelings of the citizens by besmirching the characters of the Board members and their honorable actions have accused them of acting hastily in this matter. Such is not the case. This same committee has used hasty and biased judgment of the actions of the school board.

It is with the belief that a Board of Education under such conditions cannot act for the best interests of a school system that I hereby tender my resignation to become effective immediately.

Yours sincerely,
JOSEPHINE M. FOLEY.

Albany, Calif., April 20, 1938.
Albany Board of Education, Albany, Calif.

Gentlemen:
My actions as a member of the Board of Education in the City of Albany have always been made with the firm conviction that I have acted for the best interests of the school system.

At no time have I considered any action taken by the Board deserving of the demonstrations such as have taken place in this City within the past week.

When the functions of the Board of Education elected by the majority of the people are taken over by organized minority groups acting under the influence of mob psychology, it is time for the responsible citizens of this community to investigate such conditions and make the decision as to whether the Board of Education shall carry out the duties imposed upon them by electoral mandate or whether small groups shall dictate the policies of the Board of Education.

In protest against such conditions as exist at this time in hampering the actions of the Board of Education, I hereby tender my resignation to take effect immediately.

Yours very truly,
LAWRENCE WILLIAMS.

AT ALBANY HIGH SCHOOL

By Frances Binante, Publicity Director

PUBLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

Public Schools Week will be observed at Albany High from April 26 to 29. An interesting program will be presented with a different activity every day of that week to demonstrate to the public what the Albany schools are doing.

A special invitation will be given to the parents and they are urged to visit the school during this week, especially on "Open House Night," which will be held from 8 to 9 p. m. Thursday evening, April 28. Many school departments will be in session and the classrooms will be open to the public.

SPRING FROLIC

The date grows nearer and nearer for that much talked-about annual Spring Frolic which is to be held April 29 under the direction of the Girls' League. The affair will be held at Cornell auditorium and the music will be furnished by Homer Cockrell's orchestra. This is one time where the girls will have to invite their male escorts because tickets will only be sold to the girls.

"THE CAT AND THE CANARY"
Oooooohh — a rip-roaring mystery play in three acts full of chills and thrills — screams and dreams of horror. "The Cat and the Canary" will be presented the 25th, 26th and 27th of April at the Memorial Building, for the mere price of 10 cents admission for students and adults. We warn anyone with a weak heart to remain at home.

The cast is as follows: Bob Foley, Vincensina De Biasi, Malcolm Robertson, Florence Glenn, June Marshall, Bill Rockwell, Lee McCleary, Wanda Medina, Richard Kuhlmann, and Wesley Larsen. Mr. Feeny is directing this super dramatization of a murder-mystery. Again we remind you to be present when the curtain goes up on the production.

SPORTS

By Bill Theilacker

Featuring several slugging baseball games, a track meet, a tennis match, and two golf tilts, the sports calendar of A. H. S. for the coming week is probably one of the heaviest yet encountered by Cougar athletes.

The Albany-McClmonds baseball game here this afternoon will be the first number on the program. Today is Albany's turn for the well known bye in the A. C. A. L. Rather than remain idle, Kelly Bryan arranged to have the Oakland school nine come to town. This is to get his boys into rounded form for the second round and the Richmond game Tuesday.

Here's Albany High School's program:
Today — Baseball, McClmonds, here, 3:15 p. m.

Tomorrow — Golf, Richmond, Berkeley Country Club, 8 a. m.
Tuesday — Baseball, Richmond, here, 3:15 p. m.

Three School Board Members Resign

the school. Allen Keim, present superintendent made a like request to the board.

The closing minutes of the meeting were passed in semi-darkness, someone outside having apparently tampered with the lights. An abrupt adjournment was called when Mrs. Frances Roy, secretary to Keim, fainted and had to be carried from the crowded board room.

The crowd, which had meanwhile grown to more than 1000, moved to the Marin auditorium for further discussion. At this point Ryken turned the meeting over to Turner, with the comment that his job, restoring Moore and Feeny, had been done.

Principal concern of those present, it soon developed, was the rehiring of the seven teachers who had been slated for dismissal. Several were present, spoke in defense of themselves and claimed they were being removed without due cause from the High School or elementary schools.

HAMPERED TEACHERS

It was voiced by several speakers that the teachers had been notified of their dismissal at a time of the year when they could not get employment in other cities, due to the fact that most contracts are signed early in April.

Introduced by Turner were Hays, Hess and Williams, the three board members present. The latter affirmed his faith in the judgment of Keim.

After considerable discussion the gathering voted to call for another special meeting of the School Board, set the date as tonight. Since the resignations, however, this is impossible because an appointment is required from Edgar E. Muller, county superintendent of schools, to fill one post. Such an appointment, he said, will take several days while he seeks "someone to work harmoniously" on the board. Selections to occupy the two other offices will then be made by the three board members, he explained.

Opening of Kona Club Is Success, Report Molinos

The grand opening of the new Kona Club, Wednesday night was an outstanding success, report Henry and Phil Molino, proprietors. All reservations were taken early in the week for the gala celebration at the luxurious new night club which is located at 303 San Pablo Avenue, El Cerrito.

Features provided for the fortunate patrons able to be present on the occasion, included three lavish and entertaining floor shows by well known performers and dancing on the club's new maple floor.

The justly famous Kona Club meals are being served in the new location, across from the dog track. The proprietors acquired fame for the refreshments and dinners at their former place which was recently destroyed by fire, have announced the same policy will be continued in their present establishment.

Columbia Ball Planned by Veterans

Oakland Disabled American Veterans of the World War announced today the formal opening of a drive to bring the organization's 1939 National Convention here by the staging of a "COLUMBIA BALL" in the Oakland Municipal Auditorium on May 21st.

Work to make the ball one of the most outstanding events ever staged here by any veterans' organization starts tomorrow, coincident with the anniversary of the United States' entry in the World War twenty-one years ago, Earl Brown, Past State Commander and Chairman of Chapter 7's 1939 Convention Committee, declared.

The Ball will be a colorful military pageant, entertainment and dance. More than a half hundred of the city's leading citizens have agreed to support the affair.

Highlight of the affair will be the selection of a "Miss Columbia" to officially represent the City of Oakland at this year's National Convention in Grand Rapids, Mich., in August, to formally extend an invitation for the veterans to meet here next year.

Expenses of "Miss Columbia's" trip east will be borne from proceeds of the ball. Headquarters have been opened in Suite 336 of the Leaning-ton Hotel.

A company of CCC boys will act as guides at the Federal Building on Treasure Island, San Francisco Bay site of the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition.

Now It's a "Radio Nurse"

Science's latest contribution to lightening the burden of the housewife was announced from Chicago last week. It's called the "Radio Nurse" and consists of two small units, a "guardian ear" (the white object on the bookshelves in front of the lamp) and the "Nurse" proper (oval shaped object in insert). The "ear" unit will pick up even the slightest sound in the room in which it is placed and make that sound considerably amplified, audible over the other unit which may be placed in any other part of the house. Both units become operative when simply plugged into an ordinary electric light socket. No special wiring connection between the two being necessary. Both units are easily portable and may be moved from room to room as needed. The device was developed by Commander E. F. McDonald, Jr., on his floating laboratory yacht, the Mizpah, in answer to a need presented when his baby daughter was at times left temporarily alone in her nursery stateroom. Principal uses for the "Radio Nurse" are expected to be in the care of children and invalids. With the "ear" placed near their bed, even the slightest sound made by them can be heard in whatever part of the house the "nurse" unit is placed.

Albany Lists Hits During Next Week

Another of the popular "Hopalong Cassidy" films, starring William Boyd, will be seen at the Albany Theatre tomorrow when "North of the Rio Grande" is shown. Second feature of the bill is "Change of Heart", with Gloria Stuart and Michael Whalen.

Sunday and Monday the theater is offering Myrna Loy, Franchot Tone and Rosalind Russell in "Manproof", and the Disney Revue. Short subjects complete the program.

On Tuesday and Wednesday, Kipling's "Elephant Boy" comes to Albany. The effort was filmed in Asiatic jungles never before penetrated, with a maharajah's hunters enacting the thrilling roles. "Penrod and Sam" with Billy Mauch is the accompanying picture.

"Merry Go Round of 1938" is coming next Thursday and Friday. Featured are 10 big comedy stars, including Bert Lahr, Jimmy Savo, Mischa Auer and others. At the same time "King Solomon's Mine" will be presented.

Chapel Group Enjoys Easter Breakfast Party

Following the sunrise service Easter morning, 30 young people of Berkeley Park Chapel enjoyed a breakfast party in Berkeley. The gathering was presided over by Miss Marjorie North and all present voted it the most successful they have ever held.

Sixth Anniversary of Aid Group Celebrated

Miss Bett Ann Darling, a vocalist who formerly appeared with the Metropolitan Opera Company, was one of the guest artists who appeared on the program presented by members of the Ladies Aid of the Grace Lutheran Church when they celebrated their sixth anniversary at the Parish Hall, yesterday.

Her repertoire consisted of "The Wind in the South", "Parla", "What Love Is Wind" and "Plantation Lullaby." Her accompanist was Mrs. Marian O'Brien.

Other numbers included "Humoresque", violin selection by Richard Hen piano and organ duet by Mrs. Marie Schiller and Miss June Schiller, an operetta directed by Mrs. Betty Janke, with Mrs. Ruth Rider accompanying the Sunday School children who enacted the roles.

Rev. C. R. Janke spoke on "Redemption and Projection."

Refreshments followed served on tables brightened by large bowls of daffodils. Those who poured were Miss Ione Hanson and Mrs. Mildred Copple. Those serving were Mrs. Helene Thomsen, Mrs. Abigail Herr, Mrs. Daily Hansen, Mrs. Anne Stewart, and Mrs. C. Hanson, general chairman.

Easter greetings were sent to Mrs. and Mrs. D. A. Chelemados of 618 Route Boulevard from Tucson, by their son, Peter.
